

RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF FORMER FIRST LADY BARBARA BUSH

WHEREAS, Barbara Bush married former President George H. W. Bush in 1945, raising a family that would include President George W. Bush and Florida Governor Jeb Bush;

WHEREAS, Barbara Bush served as Second Lady before becoming First Lady, while championing volunteerism throughout her life;

WHEREAS, Barbara Bush was known for her immeasurable kindness and generosity, dedicating her life's work to the cause of literacy, founding the Barbara Bush Foundation for Family Literacy;

WHEREAS, Barbara Bush was loved and admired by an entire nation for her warmth, grace, and unfailing faith;

WHEREAS, the Republican National Committee honors Barbara Bush's legacy as a First Lady, mother, wife, grandmother, and great-grandmother;

WHEREAS, on April 17, 2018, the American people lost a beloved former First Lady, Barbara Bush; now, therefore be it:

RESOLVED, that the Republican National Committee mourns the loss of Barbara Bush and honors the legacy of a First Lady whose contributions to American society and culture endure, and whose memory lives on through the love of her family.
