RESOLUTION COMMENDING PRESIDENT TRUMP ROLLING BACK BURDENSOME REGULATIONS

WHEREAS, When Donald Trump won the Republican nomination, promised to bring change to Washington, defeated Democrat Hillary Clinton, and became President of the United States on January 20th, 2017, he promptly got to work on the promises he made on the campaign trail;

WHEREAS, After inheriting 8 years of failed Democrat policies and an overregulating federal government, President Donald Trump and Republicans in Congress worked together to roll back burdensome regulations with new laws and executive orders;

WHEREAS, President Trump promised the American people that he would drain the swamp and make Washington accountable to everyday Americans and then immediately began to deliver on that promise by taking unprecedented action to give decision-making back to state and local governments;

WHEREAS, President Trump and this administration took off on a fast paced and productive note to cut burdensome government red tape, signing thirteen Congressional Review Act resolutions to eliminate harmful regulations, and bring jobs and prosperity back to our communities;

RESOLVED, The Republican National Committee appreciates the steadfast commitment this President has shown to eliminate unnecessary and onerous, job-killing regulations across the country; and, be it finally

RESOLVED, The Members of the Republican National Committee highly commend the dedication that this administration has shown to remove additional layers of bureaucracy and deliver economic relief to all Americans.
