

Republican National Committee

Counsel's Office

RESOLUTION COMMENDING PRESIDENT TRUMP, VICE PRESIDENT PENCE AND THEIR ADMINISTRATION

WHEREAS, When President Donald Trump accepted our party's presidential nomination at the 2016 Republican National Convention in Cleveland, he stated: "I'm With You, and I will fight for you, and I will win for you. To all Americans tonight, in all our cities and towns, I make this promise: We Will Make America Strong Again. We Will Make America Proud Again. We Will Make America Safe Again. And We Will Make America Great Again";

WHEREAS, After a hard fought and successful election, Donald Trump and Mike Pence were sworn in as President and Vice President on January 20, 2017; inheriting 8 years of broken promises and failed Democrat policies;

WHEREAS, President Trump, Vice President Pence and their administration immediately began delivering on their campaign promises to put America First by, bringing jobs back for American workers, putting together a strong and forward thinking conservative cabinet, seeing through the successful nomination of Supreme Court Justice Neil Gorsuch, and implementing a decisive foreign policy;

WHEREAS, President Trump moved swiftly to improve access to healthcare for America's veterans by signing legislation and executive orders into law and continuing his work with the Department of Veterans Affairs and Congressional leaders on meaningful reform to the programs and care offered to our nation's heroes;

WHEREAS, President Trump remains steadfast in his vow to Make America Great Again despite Democrats refusal to reach across the aisle and work with Republicans on policies that will reverse the broken promises and broken policies of the Obama Administration.

Paid for by the Republican National Committee. Not Authorized By Any Candidate Or Candidate's Committee. www.gop.com

RESOLVED, The Republican National Committee appreciates the determination and commitment this administration has shown to ensuring a better future for every American, and we thank President Trump and Vice President Pence for their strong commitment to our party's values; and, be it finally

RESOLVED, The Members of the Republican National Committee highly commend the dedication that this administration has shown to Making America Great Again; and with our prayers and love are proud to congratulate President Trump and Vice President Pence on their victory and thank them again for their bold leadership.